MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Well, here we are this morning into the month of April. Now let us have some ethereal mildness.

—The Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette will arrive by the C. & M. this morning.

—Prof. W. G. Beach has rented the Louis Meuser house on upper Fourth St., and will move in at once.

—Mr. S. Turney Keyes, of Columbus is circulating among friends in the city for a few days.

—Mr. Clark, an oil man who has been living on upper Fourth St. has purchased the Preston Doan property on Sixth street of J. H. McCullough and will move into it at once.

—Dr. Fred Sturgiss expects to locate at Huntington, W. Va. in a short time for the practice of medicine.

—Now is the time to buy your Easter millinery. Grand opening Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at Bee Hive Store.

—Theodore Boyd, syndicate correspondent from Parkersburg, was in Marietta yesterday, and he spoke in favorable terms of Marietta and her new hustle.

—Miss Betsy Daniels, who since 1821 has lived in Marietta, died Tuesday morning, at the age of 87 years. She had been almost a life-long member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Her funeral will occur this afternoon at 2 o'clock, from her late home.

—Married, in this city, Tuesday, the 31st, by the Rev. Mr. Stewart, Mr. Edward F. Ferguson, of Watertown, and Mrs. Mary E. Dickey, of Ormiston. The wedding occurred at the home of M. T. Dawson.

—Advance sales indicate that there will be a large attendance at the concert this evening.

—To those persons who like to see a man with a moustache, Mr. Max Rau, of the Buckeye Clothing Store, is not so handsome as he was. If not so good looking, he knows more than he did—especially about the combustibility of natural gas, particularly when it is confined in a big barrel stove. In studying the philosophy of the ignition yesterday morning, Max got his face pretty well into the stove door, so he could see good, and applied a match. —Well, his face no longer wears that fascinating black moustache, and his eyelids are bald, and sigh for hair invigorator. The front of his clothes will have to take a nap to look natural, and his left hand is riding in a sling.

—It will pay you to visit the Bee Hive Store Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

—C. J. VanValey is back to his post at the Union Ticket Office. E. E. Hart, who has been doing duty there, will go to Utley and take care of the T. & C. Ex's interests.

—Mrs. Theo. F. Davis entertained the Duplicate Whist Club yesterday afternoon.

—Greater bargains than ever before in millinery goods at Bee Hive Store.

—Real Estate Agent G. B. Sunderland sold the Mrs. C. Chapman property Monday to E. J. Reckard for the sum of $1,700.

—Don't forget the concert to be given under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias this evening.

—The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chase, Shepard died Tuesday morning of erysipelas.

—Mrs. M. F. Bartlett is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hart.

—Everything bright and new in millinery goods with prices at the bottom, quality at the top, at the Bee Hive Store.

—Try Superior Canned Corn and "Ye Olden Time Hominy." Both the very finest.

IN THE OIL FIELD.

Parkersburg Journal.

Back of St. Marys Saturday Barnsdall and Mallory got a small well on Whiskey run. It is located in the neighborhood of the small well recently drilled by Nesbitt & Co. but the Barnsdall and Mallory well is quite a disappointment as many were expecting it to show a valuable pool.

In what is known as the Athey field near Williamstown, the Davidson Oil Company have located Nos. 2 and 3 on the McTaggart farm, which adjoins the Yates Oil Company's well on the Athey farm. The No. 1 McTaggart is doing between 10 and 12 barrels a day. It is understood quite a good bit of drilling will be done in this neighborhood when the roads get good.

The well of Baer & Alford on the L. Ogden farm is holding up to at about 75 barrels a day.

Your Boy Won't Live a Month.

So Mr. Gilman Brown, of 34 Mill St., South Gardner, Mass., was told by the doctors. His son had Lung trouble, following Typhoid Malaria, and he spent three hundred and seventy-five dollars with doctors, who finally gave him up, saying: "Your boy won't live a month." He tried Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles restored him to health and enabled him to go to work a perfectly well man. He says he owes his present good health to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery, and knows it to be the best in the world for Lung trouble. Trial Bottles Free at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

Council Proceedings.

Council met Tuesday evening with nine members present. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

On request of Gracey, Kaiser, & Moore the matter of granting the franchise for an electric car line was postponed one week in order to give more time to secure rights of way on certain streets.

Building permits were granted to C. M. Coffman on Fort street, Dedrick Pape on Seventh street and Jacob Gedel on Seventh street.

A resolution was passed regarding the serving of a notice on property owners on certain streets to connect with sewer, exempting the portions of certain streets from the notice.

An ordinance was passed establishing the grade on Fourth street from Ohio to Montgomery, preparatory to the improvement of the street.

The plat of Valley View Addition, presented by Mills & McLaren, was accepted.

The voting places for the coming election were named as follows: First Ward, Morgenstern's shop; Second Ward, Dye Bros. building on Greene street; Third Ward, City Hall; Fourth Ward, Albrecht's barber shop; Fifth Ward, Remley's shoe store; Sixth Ward, Munsey's barber shop.

A petition from the property owners requesting a crossing on Fifth street, between Wooster and Washington, was referred to the Street committee. The matter of condemning property to widen Mulberry street was referred to Street committee.

After allowing the usual number of bills Council adjourned.

Waterford and Beverly.

Mr. Jewett, father of Rev. Jewett, of this circuit, died Sunday night.

The remains of M. L. Dixon were brought from the Infirmary Monday and interred at Beverly.

Len. Morey had his hand badly torn by being caught in the engine of Morey's saw-mill, last Saturday.

Mrs. Robt. Morey was thrown from a horse one day last week and was quite severely injured.

Chas. Buchanan is paying fancy prices for pure bred poultry, this week.

Mrs. Lizzie Brookaw, of Round Bottom, moved to Coal Run Tuesday.

Art Crawford, of Coal Run, is suffering with gangrene in his feet.

Eli Greene sold $\frac{1}{2}$ interest in his portable mill, last week.

Mrs. Jane Stump is lying dangerously ill at her father's, Mr. Bebout, west of here.

The siding on the Beverly bridge has been repaired, so when one gets top heavy there is no danger of his going overboard.

Miss Lucy Hardin, of Coal Run, visited her aunt, Emily Stewart, last Saturday.

C. F. Shinn has gone to the oil field at Elba and Warner, this week, so you can look for some genuine (?) oil news.

Mrs. M. R. Malster is visiting her daughter at Washington C. H., this week.

Fred Callahan, who has been having a siege of typhoid fever in Missouri, will be able to come home in a few days.

H. A. Staley and Alex. Clark, two old residents of Beverly, are very ill at this writing.

The river is finding the low grounds. If leasing land and talking "oil" will sink a well, then Wolf Creek will soon be tested. In the meantime, however, we must not neglect stating that preparations are being made to drill at Tick Ridge.

The Z. & O. work train is graveling the road bed from the pit below here to Swifts. The high trestle at the mouth of Wolf Creek is nearly completed, that is the fill.

Schools at Beverly are having their Spring vacation this week.

The usual number of removals will occur on the First inst. in Beverly.

Jesse Stewart, a deaf mute, has opened up a harness shop at Coal Run. He is a good workman and deserves patronage.

Waterford township has three tickets in the field this year—Populist, Democratic and Republican, and the main hustle seems to be for Assessor. Respective candidates are Ed. Leget, Jno. Malster and W. W. Allison. In Beverly the contest is for Marshal; F. S. Beebe vs. L. Fowler.

A brick walk to the Beverly cemetery is being planned and nearly all of the necessary funds have been subscribed. C. F. S.

showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

AFTER DINNER

when you have eaten heartily, you should take one only of Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Your stomach and liver need the gentle stimulating, as well as invigorating, effect of these tiny, sugar-coated granules. If you feel drowsy, dull, languid, indigestible, or debilitated; if you've no appetite and frequent headaches or dizziness, a furred or coated tongue—it proves that you're bilious. In that case you should use the "Pellets." They are anti-bilious granules, which act in a prompt and natural way, without griping.

BEST PILLS FOR THE LIVER.

ROBERT MANSON, of West Fox, Rockingham Co., N. H., writes: "Three years ago I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; I weighed 140 pounds, and now I weigh 175 pounds, so you see how I have gained in health and weight. Doctor Pierce's Pellets are the best pills I ever took for the liver. All my friends say they do them the most good."

R. MANSON, Esq.

LIVER PILLS.

MR. SAMUEL BAKER, SR., of No. 161 Summit Ave., Philadelphia, N. J., writes: "There is nothing that can compare with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets as liver pills. They have done more good than any other medicine I have ever taken."

MR. S. BAKER, SR.
